Fun, Sun, and Changed Lives

Praise and Prayer

- Ryan celebrated his 5th birthday in February.

- Praise God for the students who came to know Him through Big Break. Pray that they would grow in their walks with Him and that they will tell other students about Jesus.

- Pray for Jeff as he redesigns the Destino Movement Web site. Pray that more Latino students would get involved and start new Destino movements.

Over the last month, 2400 Campus Crusade staff and students participated in Big Break at Panama City Beach, Florida. Through this outreach, over 13,105 Spring Breakers heard the gospel with 1288 making decisions for Christ. The following is a story from Lindsey, a student at Miami of Ohio:

After our morning evangelism training, I grabbed an iPod that was available for showing a short film. My friend, Stacy, and I headed out to the beach to talk with people.

*We approached Katelyn and asked her to watch the short film, LaBusqueda*. She loved the film and she was really agitated that the prodigal daughter in the story did not get off the bus to be reunited with her father. Later on in the conversation, we explained the gospel. She wasn't quite ready to respond to the gospel but she asked us to show the film to her boyfriend Calvin.*

We approached Calvin and his friend Aaron. They watched the entire film and talked about it extensively. We explained the gospel to both of them. Just when Calvin was going to invite Christ into his life, Katelyn walked up and asked what we were doing. Calvin said, "We're getting ready to pray." Katelyn responded, "Can I pray too?"

Designing the Big Break Web site was one of the many projects Jeff worked on at the end of 2008. He also built two other sites.

* LaBusqueda is a short film about search of a father for his daughter, and the daughter's own search for what she wants in life.

ImagineYourImpact.org helps to educate students to the many opportunities in Operational ministry.

MyCampusHisCall.com surfaces students that God has prepared to start a ministry on their campus. Facebook ads point interested students to the site where they can watch a testimony by Nick, who started a Campus Crusade movement on his campus.

Jeff is starting a redesign project of Destino Movement.com, the Campus ministry's contextualized ministry to Latinos. One of the goals of the site is to connect Latino students to an existing Destino movement on their campus or help them to start one.
