Connecting to Students Through the Web

Prayer

• Continue to pray for Jeff as he redesigns the Destino Movement Web site.

Pray that God will give Jeff wisdom and help him find a creative solution.

• Pray for the 1800 students who will be participating in Campus Crusade Summer Projects. Pray for a summer of spiritual growth and fruitful ministry.

At the University of Northern Colorado, Jen was interested in getting involved with Campus Crusade for Christ. She found the movement's Web site, uncru.com, and filled out a "Get Connected" form.

UNC staff member Nicole met with Jen. Nicole discerned that Jen was not confident in her relationship with God. Although Jen had a past of involvement with a church youth group and had even participated in several mission trips, she was questioning her faith.

"I took a philosophy class this semester and some of the things the professor said to our class really challenged me and I'm not confident in what I believe anymore."

We often see college students question their faith and what they learned growing up. They need people who can point them to God's Word during this time of questioning. Nicole met with Jen and helped her have a Biblical understanding of assurance of salvation.

That same afternoon, Nicole met with Alli, who had also requested more information through the local movement's Web site.

As we they talked through the Gospel, Alli began understand things for the first time, At the end Alli said, "this is exactly what I want." Nicole had the privilege of praying with Alli as she placed her trust in Christ.

Each day, students are connecting to local campus movements through "ministry locators" like this one on GodSquad.com. Anyone visiting the site can fill out a form to contact the local staff to connect with Campus Crusade on that campus.

These stories illustrate what our ministry is all about. Through the Internet, we are connecting students to opportunities to take the next step in their spiritual journey.

- Summer mission projects gosummerproject.com
- A Spring Break mission project big-break.com
- Resources to help start Campus Crusade on their campus mycampushiscall.com and godsquad.com
- Local campus movements utilize ministry locators on several Campus Crusade Web sites

Thanks for your partnership in changing the lives of students like Jen and Alli.

Pictures (clockwise from top left)

- We are so proud of Ryan completing 100 reading lessons with Mom.
- We traveled over to Tampa to see a major league baseball game. The Rays were playing the Royals. A man sitting in the row behind us was nice enough to take our picture.
- Our trip to the baseball game got a 2 thumbs up from Katy.
- Jeff enjoys sharing his love of baseball with the kids.
- Lydia is playing mommy by teaching her doll how to read.
