

Soularium Questions

Which 3 images would you choose to describe your life right now? What do each of the images represent about your life?

Which 3 images represent what you WISH were part of your life right now? What desire does each image represent?

Which image would you choose to describe God? What does it say about God to you?

Think about your life so far. Which image describes what you've experienced spiritually? What does that image represent?

When you think of your own spiritual journey, which image best represents what you wish were true? What does that image represent?

Visit <http://mysoularium.com>